ENTUSIASMO RITUALE
LULA BROGLIO

Salotto studio is pleased to present Entusiasmo Rituale by Lula Broglio.

This is Lula's first solo show in Milan. Lula Broglio was born in Sanremo in 1993, after attending art school in Turin Lula now lives and works close to the river, in Biella, Piedmont.

Each canvas in this exhibition is the result of intense visualizations and manifestations. The eight oil paintings on show depict fantastic landscapes where cat with laser eyes, ghosts, martini cocktails, rationalist architectures and elves live alongside.

Lula creates an intimate and eerie narrative through the close connection of details: the arrangement of objects, sinister presences and gazes that appear on the walls of the rooms that populate her dreams.

The formal coherence between the works is found in the superimposed transparencies, a veil of smoke, a milky membrane, obtained with lighter and lighter brushstrokes. Each successive pictorial passage is a second thought, a ghost that clouds the thought.

The exterior and the interior, domesticity and wilderness, rationality and spirituality are embodied in a magical, enthusiast, collective, ritual.
